Description:

Unique opportunity in the old town of Tarifa. This property is an old episcopal granary built in the 16th century. The current owner has completely renovated this property and is running it as an art-gallery, restaurant, bar and hostel with two charming suites. The property has a lot of character and special features such as an Andalucian patio, the gallery with arches and a chill-out area on the roof with magnificent views to Africa. This pro...
